MESSAGE

(TO BE COMPLETED IN TRIPLICATE)

Dear Rod:

I note in your October 31st Monthly Report that Bill Drury submitted the old Boswell Creek silver deposit. This was submitted to me in 1953 by the owner, John Mohagen. His samples at that time appeared to be carefully selected. I checked with Everett Lee, the government geologist (now consulting) who wrote the report on the find many years ago. He said the veins were very small. Unless Mohagen has something new to offer, its not worth a trip, its a long walk in. There may be something on your Yukon files on this. I seem to recall that Lofty Aird or Don Kidd had a look at the showings at that time.

Regards

Chief Geologist
