

Peso

Notes from telephone conversation with Angus Macdonald

Sci & Sat - Peso

1 vein - no good

Sun. evening, Sept 3/62

(but is 250
3 1/2' wide)

(1)

See - Duncan

Remain - 700' traceable

006052

av width 5' true very little gte
av less than 5% total sulphides 90% pyrite - siderite - wulfenite hit vein approx 100' small amt of galena at 91' - 91' in core 7' true

60 dip
main

1st hole 42°

- poor core recovery

- siderite with ferrousite (mostly come to the
of the core is sulphides)

2nd hole 72°

- 5 1/2' ft in core (5' true)

- 50% ferrousite & a lot of 80% of sulphides pyrite

took 4 samples on surface

- at 110' in core
- 121'

no corals yet - no galena probably not tetrahedrite in core

3rd hole - have hit 30-50' of gte which is unuse

- hit small vein at 106' but don't think it is the main vein

- expect to hit main at 116' in 3rd hole

- No 70% of solid sulphides in No 1 vein tunnel - nothing like it.

- Duncan property - traced a vein 150' length

- 040° strike

50° SE dip

took ^{min} sample

- 2' ^{max} of vein material contains pyrite gal & tetra
300-400

20' long in the middle of 150'

- 10-15% sulphides

- wall rock is graphitic schist

- oxid'd py in graph schist

Please ~~write~~ immediately wire two hundred dollars to Angus McDonald Royal Bank Mayo Yukon.

Peso Silver (notes from telephone conversation with Angus Macdonald Mon. evening Sept. 29/62.

- ~~Watson~~ re. grant on Duncan
- check 3' vein found on Mayo Silver
- check on location & findings on Hole # 3 on Rex.
- pay visit to showings of ~~the~~ ~~Duncan~~ Fort Frances Syn north of Watson Lake.

Sample 814 3' of highest grade on Rex 2.56 oz Ag
815 3.6' " " " " 0.62 " "

30-40

816 2' grab of fresh sulphides 12.36 Ag
817 1' of solid jamesonite 7.4

818 SW face of drift on No. 1 vein 2.1' - 16 oz Ag 819 NE " " " " " " 9' - 2.44 oz Ag
heavy gal spy

Duncan 820 - picked gal. & sy copper - 217 oz Ag
55% Pb

- Hole 3 75' below surface 104'-118' 150' E of Hole 3. Hole 4 to be a vent. hole from same setting as #3. - vein expected at 175'
- 2619770 - if no urgency.
Careful.

Wayland Read is man on job.