

Looking East

Note The projected sulphide bands are not distinct in DDH #1 as they are in DDH #3 and to some extent #2, east of #1. It would appear that better or more sulphides are found east of this line. J. Fairley reports that the dirt schists may carry up to 3% sulphide. Drill hole location (proposed) is based on presence of coincident EM, mag and gravity anomalies.

Line 32 W
 BC Crown Group
 Kerr Addison Mines Ltd
 Geophysical Profiles and
 Possible Drill Hole Location

SCALE: 1" = 400'
 April 1973 J.C. Lund

018233 Toronto copy