

5th April, 1957.

A. M. Nordale, Esq.,
Resident Manager,
Dawson, Yukon.

Dear Arnold:

Prospecting - Leases on Swede Creek.

Thanks for your useful letter of the 1st.

Leases on Swede Creek. I quite agree that with the information you have it was advisable to take up a couple of leases on this creek, and wired you accordingly.

Leases on ground near Alaska Highway. One never knows when a report of this nature will point to something promising, and our company is in the best position to prospect placer property as well as to decide about operating possibilities. Perhaps you can learn from Joe Lamontagne who the owners of these leases are and any other information contained in the letter he had received from them.

Prospecting on Twelve Mile and Generally. I agree with you that Lamontagne is the most promising candidate we have had for our prospecting campaign, especially in view of prospects that he knows of. If you can arrange terms with him that you consider satisfactory, let me know and I will have them approved by Montreal. It would be of the greatest advantage to have a man who knows the country and is able to be "on his own" for reasonable periods.

I shall no doubt be hearing from you and hope that you will be successful in arranging tentative terms with Lamontagne.

With best regards,

Sincerely yours,

CEM.
